Executive Director Kathryn Gallant provided an update on recent discussions with the Town of Reading on the potential transfer of a parcel of land located on Oakland Road. Vice Chair Charlie Adams discussed that RHA would be supporting the Town on an application for a Housing Planning Production grant and that a meeting would be scheduled with Town staff and Mass Housing to discuss the application process. Both Charlie Adams and Margaret Donnelly Moran plan to participate in this meeting.

Executive Director Kathryn Gallant also spoke of the Metro housing forum hosted by RHA for residents of the Minot Street property who are being displaced by new management. Eight of the twelve residents were provided with information on applying for housing programs, rent arrearage programs, moving expense assistance and tenant rights information.

Other updates included recent and upcoming resident services activities such as the February and March craft workshops, working with residents on Mass Health Renewals, Reading PD and Middlesex Sheriff SCAM prevention clinic and upcoming Fall prevention information session.

Selectboard member Karen Herrick discussed opportunities for seniors through the senior center and encourage residents to reach out to her if they had difficulties engaging town services such as the RIDE.

Motion 23-59

To adjourn at 6:27pm.

Moved: Timothy Kelley Seconded: Marie Hanson
